Wholesale Price List — Season 1960-1961 Bareroot and Packaged Roses

TO THE TRADE —

For three generations we, at Vermay, have been leaders in the field of producing and shipping some of the finest Roses in America. This year, above all others, we are especially excited about the fine quality of our crop. A systematic spray program using proven fungicides, such as Maneb, has given excellent control of diseases. This, along with proper care at every level of operation, has resulted in more vigorous, healthy plants.

In presenting this copy of our new list, we wish to thank our customers for the business they have favored us with during the past and invite others to give us a trial order.

Visitors are always welcome and we extend a cordial invitation to visit our plant and fields anytime.
